01 T This is a hat. Can you wear it on your hand? (Teacher can put the hat on his/her hand.)

S No!

02 T Can you wear it on your back? (Teacher puts the hat on his/her back.)

S No!

S No!

04 T Where do you wear this hat?

S You wear it on your head.

05 T That's right. I wear it on my head. (Teacher puts the hat on his/her head.)
This is the way we wear our hats. Do you wear hats?

S Yes, I do.

06 T Do you think animals can wear hats?

S ... (Answers may vary.)

07 T Alright. Let's take a look at this picture. (Teacher shows the fourth opening of the story Animals Should Definitely Not Wear Clothing, emphasizing the picture page.) What animal is this?

S It's a camel.

08 T What is the camel wearing?

S It's wearing hats.

09 T How many hats is this camel wearing?

S Two hats.

10 T Is it normal to wear hats on your back?

S No.

11 T So, a camel should not wear hats because it might wear them in the wrong places. (Teacher puts the hat on his/her back.) Is this the right place or the wrong place?

S Wrong place.

12 T So this camel wears the hats in the wrong places. Where should the hat go?

S On the camel's head.

13 T You're right! Now let's take a look at another animal. (Teacher shows the cover of the book.) What animal is this?

S 刺蝟

14 T Yes, it's a porcupine. Porcupine. Please say it with me, Porcupine.

S Porcupine.

T What can you tell me about porcupines?

- 15 S (Ss might have different answers. Teacher can encourage the students to give as many details as they can about porcupines.) They are cool. They are ugly. They have 刺刺 .

T Oh, yes. Porcupines have quills. (Teacher shows the cover of the book.) Look at this porcupine. What do the quills do to the porcupine's shirt?

- 16 S The shirt is broken.

T You're right. So should animals wear clothing?

- 17 S No.

T That's what the title of this story book says. (Teacher points to the title of the story book.) Let's read the title together.

- 18 S Animals should definitely not wear clothing.

T NOT wear clothing, definitely NOT wear clothing. What does DEFINITELY NOT mean?

- 19 S It means no.

T Good job. (Teacher points to the title again.) So let's read the title again.

三、閱讀中提問設計與參考答案

T (Teacher turns to the first opening.) Look at this porcupine. Does it look happy?

- 01 S No.

T Why not?

- 02 S Because the porcupine's shirt is broken.

- 03 T Right! The porcupine's shirt is broken. (Teacher turns to the second opening of the book.) Again, animals should definitely not wear clothing, (Teacher turns to the third opening of the book.) because it would be disastrous for a porcupine (The teacher can shake his/her head to show the meaning of the word disastrous.) Does "disastrous" mean something good or bad?
- S Bad.

- 04 T Disastrous (The teacher can shake his/her head again.) means something really bad. (Teacher turns to the fourth opening of the book, showing the picture page only.) Again, why should a camel definitely not wear hats?
- S (Ss can use their own words to express what they see from the picture.) (Then Teacher shows the page with words, and guides the Ss to read along.) Because a camel might wear them in the wrong places.

- 05 T (Teacher turns to the fifth opening of the book, showing just the picture page.) What animal is this?
- S It's a snake.

- 06 T What's the snake trying to wear?
- S Pants, jeans.

- 07 T Should snakes wear pants?
- S Maybe not.

- T Why not?
- 08 S (Answers may vary.) Because snakes are too thin. Because snakes don't have legs...

- 09 T (Teacher shows the page with words.) Because a snake would lose its pants.
S Ha ha ha.

- 10 T (Teacher turns to the sixth opening of the book, showing the picture page only.) What do you see?
S A hat.

- 11 T What animal is wearing this hat?
S (Ss may have different answers.) A dog, a little cat....

- 12 T Look at the picture carefully. It has a long tail.
S It's a mouse.

- 13 T That's right. A mouse shouldn't wear a hat because a mouse could get lost in it. (Teacher shows the page with words.) Look, it's lost! Where is it?
So, why shouldn't a mouse wear a hat?
S Because a mouse could get lost in it.

- 14 T (Teacher turns to the seventh opening of the book, showing the page with words only.) Let's read this page together.
T S Because a sheep might find it terribly hot.

- 15 T "Terribly hot" means very very hot. So, what do you think this sheep is wearing?
S (Allow the students to have different answers.) A jacket, a coat, a hat, a scarf, a sweater...

16 T It's wearing something that can keep it warm, very warm. Yes, it's a sweater. Is the sweater warm?
S Yes.

17 T What is the sweater made of?
S Wool.

18 T Right! Sweaters are made of wool. And where does the wool come from?
S From the sheep.

19 T So, the sheep is wearing a big sweater. That's why it is terribly...
S Hot.

20 T Very good. (Teacher shows the picture page of the seventh opening.)

For the following pages of the book, the teacher can decide to show either the picture page first or the page with words. Through Q and A, students are encouraged to use their imagination and language to comprehend the story.

四、閱讀後提問設計

- Teacher can review clothing and animal words with the students.
- Teacher asks the students, "What is the moose wearing?", and the students can find the answer in the book.
- Teacher can divide the students into several groups, and each group takes turns shouting out an animal name for the teacher to write it on the board (do not repeat animals that have been mentioned by other groups.) This same activity can be done with clothing items. So on the board, there are two lists: animals, clothing. This in-class listing can be a guide to Worksheet 2 where the students use their imagination to come up with an animal and a clothing item that shouldn't be worn by that animal. This last part of the worksheet can be cut down and compiled together as a class book.

Read the story again, look at the pictures carefully, and write down the animals that are wearing the following clothing.
請再讀一次故事並仔細看圖片，將穿著以下衣物的動物名稱寫出來。

1 Who's wearing a hat?

2 Who's wearing a shirt?
